

September

FAMILY BUCKET LIST

www.mimosasandmotherhood.com

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Go apple picking | <input type="checkbox"/> Make homemade playdough scented with pumpkin spice |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Visit a farmers market & try a new fall food | <input type="checkbox"/> Have a board game night |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Take a family hike and look for signs of fall (changing leaves, acorns, pine cones) | <input type="checkbox"/> Bake pumpkin muffins or bread |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Have a backyard picnic before cooler weather sets in | <input type="checkbox"/> Do a simple fall leaf rubbing art project |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Try a local fall festival or fair | <input type="checkbox"/> Decorate with mini pumpkins |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Collect pine cones and use them later for crafts | <input type="checkbox"/> Read fall-themed books together |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Go on a nature scavenger hunt | <input type="checkbox"/> Do a simple fall scavenger hunt in your yard or neighborhood |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Play in a giant pile of leaves (or toss them in the air!). | <input type="checkbox"/> Let kids help plan a cozy fall dinner table one night |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Go stargazing | <input type="checkbox"/> Celebrate the first day of fall (September 22 this year!) with hot chocolate or apple cider. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Visit a local pumpkin patch | <input type="checkbox"/> Start talking about gratitude and create a family "thankful jar." |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Bake an apple crisp together | <input type="checkbox"/> Take first-day-of-fall photos in the leaves. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Make a fall simmer pot | <input type="checkbox"/> Paint rocks in autumn colors and hide them in your neighborhood |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Have a Friday night family movie night with popcorn and blankets. | <input type="checkbox"/> Light a fall-scented candle (or diffuse kid-safe oils) and read together |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Set up an indoor dance party with glow sticks. | <input type="checkbox"/> Plan a cozy Sunday family breakfast with pancakes or pumpkin waffles. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Do a puzzle together as a family | |